MEMORANDUM FOR : Brigadier General Andrew J. Goodpaster
Staff Secretary
The White House

SUBJECT : Request for Letter Written by President Eisenhower

General Charles de Gaulle is presently preparing the third volume of his memoirs.

[] of this Agency is one of the few Americans to be decorated with the [] General de Gaulle and has maintained continuing contact with him since Resistance days.

Through [] the Agency has, from time to time, filled requests from the General for various books and publications dealing with U. S. affairs []

On 6 August 1957 General de Gaulle requested [] to help him find a certain letter supposedly written by the President to the General on 10 September 1944 on the subject of "Operations." This letter is to be used as background information by the General in preparing his memoirs. The General has told [] that he believes this letter may be part of the President's records.

Assuming a copy of this letter can be located I would appreciate it if you would check with the President as to its availability, bearing in mind that it will doubtless be published. If the President can see his way clear to making this letter available to General de Gaulle, I believe it would be useful to have [] who is known to the President, present it to the General on the President's behalf.
